Level 1/Level 2/Level 3 by cumulative time per course of fire and Distinguished Expert/Expert/Sharpshooter/Marksmen by score

- Course is shot cold and cannot be attempted within 1 hour of first attempt or more than 2 times in one day.
- All strings begin from holster with hands relaxed at sides; target is standard USPSA Metric @ 10 yards with 30" edge to edge. A, C and D zone hits in the body are scored as per USPSA minor. A/B heads are counted as D's unless called prior
- Expert 225-250 (90-100%), Sharpshooter 200-224, Marksmen 175-199 (Level 1/2/3 times posted)
- 25 Yard string (#8) must begin with 10 rounds distributed between two magazines. String requires a reload at shooters discretion
- Lowest level on any one string is highest level that can be achieved.
- Misses and procedural (improper start position, sequence, number of rounds fired) assess a 10-point penalty.
- Extra shots will be subtracted from the A-zone along with the 10-point penalty
- Duty holsters with Level 2 retention subtract .25 closed top duty magazine pouches subtract .25 seconds
- Concealment
 - Subtract .25 seconds for every action from concealment. -.25 for draw, -.25 for reload.
 - No IDPA/fishing/photo vests unless that is your duty uniform
 - Must have factory slide to frame dimensions *no long-slide guns, no comps
 - Holsters and pouches must be specifically designed for concealment use
- Distinguished Expert (Level 1 only and no handicap for concealment but annotated as Distinguished Expert-C) 250 points with every individual time met per string (not just cumulative time)
